

The Council of Young Jewish Presidents invites you to the third-annual Memorial Day Ceremony honoring America's fallen heroes.

Monday, May 31st 2010

Doors open at 7:30pm

Program begins promptly at 8:00pm

Kehilath Jeshurun

125 East 85th Street (Park and Lexington)

Program Highlights

Congressional Medal of Honor Recipient Col. Jack Jacobs

Remarks by Mrs. Melinda Kane, mother of Lance Cpl.

Jeremy Kane (z"l), killed in Afghanistan on January 23, 2010.

Please join us after the program for refreshments and an opportunity to show your support by making care packages for active service members. Please consider bringing with you, as a donation, a few of the following items: old/non-working cell phones, individual (non-perishable) size snack foods, drink mixes, DVDs, board games, or game books.

For more information and to reserve preferred seating, contact Hindy@cyjpp.org or 212.983.4800 ext 146 or visit www.cyjpp.org

Participating Organizations:

30 Years After • Abraham Joshua Heschel School • Aleph Institute • America-Israel Friendship League • American Jewish Committee • Anshei Chesed • Community Security Service • Congregation Habonim • Congregation Shearith Israel • Dor Chadash • Jewish Center • Jewish International Connection • Jewish National Fund • Jewish War Veterans • Jewish Welfare Board • Jews in Green • JINSA • Kehilath Jeshurun • Keter Torah NJ • Kinneret Day School • KOE • Lincoln Square Synagogue • Manhattan Day School • Manhattan Jewish Experience • Migdal Ohr • The Navy League • New York Board of Rabbis • Ohab Zedek • R Jeneration • Ramath Orah • SAR Academy • Solomon Schechter School of Manhattan • Temple Israel • Temple Shaaray Tefila • The Carlebach Shul • The Major Stuart Adam Wolfer Institute • West Side Institutional Synagogue • Young Israel of the West Side